Conference Event

WHAT: Native Voices - Presentations of languages by representatives of the Coushatta, Houma, Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, and Tunica-Biloxi tribes.

WHEN: Saturday, October 10, 2015
Brunch – 10:00AM
Program – 12:00PM

WHERE: Freeman Auditorium & Woodward Way Breezeway in the Woldenberg Art Center at Tulane University, Newcomb Place between Ferret St. and Willow St. New Orleans, LA 70118

Program Notes

- Tribes will be set up cultural displays in the Woodward Way breezeway of Freeman Auditorium. Arts and crafts may be sold.
- Tunica-Biloxi, Houma, Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians and Coushatta will each do a 15-20 minute presentation
  - Demonstration of tribal language (dialog) by tribal representatives
  - Tribal songs
  - Summary of tribe’s language preservation activities
  - Q&A after all presentations are made

Schedule
8:00AM - 10:00AM  Set-up (Woodward Way Breezeway)
10:00AM  Brunch for FEL Conference participants & guests (Woodward Way Breezeway)
10:00AM - 12PM  Cultural Displays (Woodward Way Breezeway)
12:00PM  Native Voices Presentation (Freeman Auditorium)
2:00PM  Close

NOTE: The Woodward Way Breezeway is outside the Freeman Auditorium in the Woldenberg Art Center at Tulane University

Event Contacts
John Barbry
Tunica-Biloxi Tribe of Louisiana
jdbarbry@tunica.org
O: (318) 240-6412
C: (318) 481-9526

Brenda Lintinger
LintingerBW@aol.com